

BROOMFIELD AUDITORIUM

Classical Fusion

Concerts are Free and start at 7p.m.
in the Broomfield Auditorium

January 6

A Touch of Class Trio-Music From the Heart

This trio is comprised of Nancy Brace, Brett Wallace and Tracy LaGuardia. Proceeds from the sales of CDs at this concert will be donated to the Autism Society.

February 3

Obadiah Ariss

Obadiah Ariss will perform classical works from Bach, Beethoven and Brahms. He will also present a master class before the performance at 6pm. This class will be limited to the four students who have been preselected.

March 3

The Auburn Duo-Reflections of Inner Light

David Shuey and Heather Plattenberger will perform sonatas by Prokofiev and Beethoven.

April 7

Central City Opera Ensemble-Smooth Operator

This program will be a great introduction to opera featuring well loved and easily recognized favorites.

The City and County of Broomfield Cultural Affairs Division invites the public to experience its newest music series Classical Fusion. This series is free and will take place the first Wednesday of every month, January through April at 7 pm in the Broomfield Auditorium. Classical Fusion is a wonderful way for families to explore forms of classical music in an accessible, intimate space.

