

Connecting Colorado is a new and improved secure website where job seekers and businesses with employment opportunities are brought together and matched to fit each other's needs. The City and County of Broomfield Workforce Center in partnership with the Colorado Department of Labor and Employment provides this secure website as a free resource to job seekers and employers who wish to use the Colorado Workforce Center system through a convenient and secure method.

Connecting Colorado: we're bringing people and jobs together.

Job Seekers:

Connecting Colorado is part of a state and county-run system that delivers immediate, tangible results for your future. At this secure website, you can:

- Post and edit your résumé,
- Apply for a specific job,
- Use new and improved search features to do a self-directed job search through any of twenty-two different occupational sectors,
- Access career tools such as resume building tips, career planning and education,
- Receive email notification of new jobs that arrive.

Employers:

Finding and hiring the right people for your business requires a major investment of your time and money – costs which directly affect your bottom line. Connecting Colorado offers a more cost effective way of recruiting and hiring.

- Post jobs, graduate assistantships & internships,
- Search for résumés with improved search features,
- Receive email notifications of new applicants that register on the site,
- Access business tools such as tips for business success, HR information, Labor Market Information, labor and legal issues,
- Review statistics on how many applicants and job openings are currently on the site.

www.connectingcolorado.com