

Creating a Path, moving forward

Presented by the Broomfield Workforce Center

Wednesday, February 8th, 8:30 am till noon

Broomfield Workforce Center

6650 W. 120th Ave. Unit A1, Broomfield, CO 80020

Register to attend by calling 303-464-5894 or visit the Workforce front desk. Space is limited!

The class was designed for the unemployed and underemployed coping with making changes. The goal is not to provide you with any specific answers since they must be unique to you and discovered from within.

You will be guided and encouraged to begin to create your own path towards your desired state. We will also discuss the need for goals to be realistic and achievable.

The class will explore:

- The transition (change) process
- The steps required to begin creating your own path
- ...and exploring what is next

REMEMBER, being busy may not be the same as making progress!

The class will encourage spirited discussions and personal participation. What is said in the class stays in the class.

About the facilitator:

Hal Lunka

Hal is a principal of AVR Associates, Ltd, past Chairman and President of the Project Management Institute Mile Hi Chapter, and on the faculty of the Keller Graduate School of Management. Hal, a Broomfield resident, has presented numerous classes for the unemployed and underemployed citizen's served by the Workforce Center.

He has also served on the Health and Human Services Citizens Advisory Committee for Broomfield County and is a member of the Cherry Creek Toastmaster's Club.

© AVR Associates, Ltd. 2012

www.avrassociates.com