

June 19
Friday

Wild Thing, You Make My Heart Sing with Kathleen Gibson

This exuberant family concert will have you and your "wild things" singing and dancing in the aisles. Come dressed up as "wild things" or bring favorite stuffed animals along to this wild celebration with Parents' Choice Award Winning singer/songwriter Kathleen Gibson, back by popular request! Stick around for photos with the wild things and autographing CDs after the concert!

June 26
Friday

Clown Make Up Show and Tell with Abbie Lawrence

Miss Abbie turns from an ordinary person into a clown by applying make-up and changing into character as she does so. Once in make-up, Miss Abbie performs her signature "getting tangled up in the easel" piece. She concludes by showing how the make-up comes off and she returns to being a normal person. This is a great show to introduce children to the art of clowning.

July 10
Friday

Hunk-Ta-Bunk-Ta Yoooo Hoooo! with Katherine Dines

Come be creative at YOUR library with a special concert by Katherine Dines. This award-winning songwriter and performer returns to stir her wonderful songs, movements, sign language, zany props and instruments from around the globe in a tasty stew that's good for all ages.

July 17
Friday

Jungle Jazz Band

Come join the Jungle Jazz Band for a fun show filled with stories and songs about life in the jungle ... from the animals' point of view!

July 24
Friday

Mary Sue and Cari

Be ready to clap, giggle, buzz, and sing with Mary Sue Rogers & Cari Minor as these two singer-songwriters captivate kids and parents alike with their whimsical puppets, magical harmonies and spontaneity with the audience. From popping bugs out of their ears to dancing like hippos, these talented song writers will share their interactive, original music.

Programs subject to change

Funding provided by:

The City and County of Broomfield does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, religion, age or disability in the provision of service. For anyone needing reasonable accommodation to attend or participate in a city program or activity please call 720-887-2300 (library) or TDDY 720-887-2378 as far in advance as possible, or at least 48 hours in advance of the event so that arrangements can be made to locate the required auxiliary aid.

MAMIE DOUD EISENHOWER PUBLIC LIBRARY
2009 SUMMER READING PROGRAM

WONDERFUL WEDNESDAYS

Arts, cultural and science programs designed for elementary school children and their families.

and

FABULOUS FRIDAYS

Arts and cultural programs designed for ages 3 – 6 years old and their families

Mamie Doud Eisenhower Public Library Children's Library
3 Community Park Road 720-887-2315 www.broomfieldlibrary.com

Wonderful Wednesdays 2009

Programs designed for elementary school children and their families

2 - 2:45 p.m.

Broomfield Auditorium

3 Community Park Road

June 10
Wednesday Rept-phantom Rendevous with Perry Conway
From tadpoles to T. Rex, salamanders to snakes...reptiles and amphibians are among the world's most fascinating wildlife groups to study. Live animals will be an engaging part of this multi-media presentation by Perry Conway, creator and producer of the Aerie Nature Series.

June 17
Wednesday Masks Are Magic with Faustwork Theatre
A variety of characters spring to life. Full masks are worn on top or back of the head creating hilarious distortions that baffle the eye and tickle the funny bone.

June 24
Wednesday About Pluto - presented by Dr. Marc Buie - Planet Advocate for Pluto
Pluto has been a central theme of Dr. Buie's research since 1983 and he has used every tool at his disposal to learn about Pluto. This program will provide an opportunity to see the development of a science and a knowledge-base about Pluto. (* most appropriate for 4th - 6th grades)

July 1
Wednesday Colorado Renaissance Festival
Prepare thyself to revel with master revelers of the Colorado Renaissance Festival, where pleasures reign and merrymaking is the rule!

July 8
Wednesday Art Guffaw
Mr. Art Guffaw (clown extraordinaire, Jim Jackson) enters the Artist Studio and discovers that the portraits can dance, the drawings speak and the still lifes juggle! The worlds of Van Gogh, Picasso and Bugs Bunny collide as great art is hilariously swamped by giant soap bubbles, flying eggs and a frustrated clown who just wants to be a painter.

July 15
Wednesday

Flumpa Live

Flumpa is an interactive musical science adventure that exercises the mind and body while making science easy to understand and FUN! This is an award-winning rock concert for kids that has been performed nationwide for 15 years. Don't miss this one!

July 22
Wednesday

Playground Theatre Presents "The Green Scene"

Introducing the world's first organic Super Hero: SUPERNATURAL! Born on Earth Day, raised on peace, love and granola.... Supernatural is here to sage the planet! This show also highlights "Trash to Treasure"; another hilarious pirate adventure with Captain Underwear and Long John Slipper. Finally, the audience has a chance to show off their knowledge in "The Green Game Show".

Fabulous Fridays 2009

Programs designed for ages 3 - 6 years and their families

10:30 - 11:10 a.m.

Broomfield Auditorium 3 Community Park Road
FREE tickets available at the Auditorium Box Office beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Seating Limited to the first 250

Children must be accompanied by an adult who will stay with them

June 5
Friday

Wee Notables - Where Music Meets PLAY!

Interactive puppets, music, dance, world languages and more. Lots of audience participation.

June 12
Friday

The Creative Side of Dogs...music, props and fun!!

Performing Palz, canine actors, composed of Cocker Spaniels, an Australian Terrier and a Golden Retriever, the Palz retrieve their mail, talk on the phone, check their refrigerator, perform card tricks, run agility courses, shoot a little hoop, demonstrate flyball and keep audiences fascinated as Boz actually works a wooden puzzle consisting of colored shapes!