

Introducing:

Little Music Makers

Discover a love of music while incorporating developmental skills essential for preschoolers!

Taught by music therapist/early childhood music educator Stephanie Sprenger, this class incorporates fine and gross motor skills, social interaction, following directions, language development and creativity!

Preschoolers will have a great time learning new songs and playing a variety of quality instruments while finding their confidence to express themselves, through music and movement.

This class is a great combination of learning musical skills, instruments, and songs while addressing developmental goals!

Tuesdays, 4-4:45 p.m.
Beginning January 2010
Ages 3-5 Years
