

Broomfield Depot
Museum Friends

2018 Broomfield Depot Museum Friends and the Broomfield Depot Museum Speaker Series

“We Are Broomfield”

Presentations at the Historic Broomfield Crescent Grange, 7901 W. 120th Avenue, Broomfield (except September 12)

The Temple Down the Street: The Laotian Community Finding Hope and Opportunity in Ashes

Sunnie Gist, Executive Administrator and Project Manager, Lao Buddhist Temple of Denver and Emmy Thammazine, Lead Designer

Wednesday, April 11, 7 p.m.

Was It the Weapon of Choice? Smallpox and Its Impact on the Frontier

John Monnett, PhD, Emeritus Professor at the Metropolitan State University of Denver

Wednesday, May 9, 7 p.m.

Mixed Blood: The Love and Lineage of the First Families of the Santa Fe Trail

Bill Gwaltney, Historian, former Assistant Regional Director, National Park Service, Intermountain Region, and Curator of Military History, National Museum of African American History and Culture, Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D.C.

Wednesday, June 13, 7 p.m.

Adolph Zang’s Lakeside Amusement Park: From the White City Beautiful to a Century of Fun

David Forsyth, PhD

Wednesday, July 11, 7 p.m.

We Followed the Coal and Migrant Work for a Better Life:

Reflecting on One Family’s Journey to Boulder County

The Boulder County Latino History Project Advisory Committee and Tom Martinez, Broomfield resident and contributing photographer

Wednesday, August 8, 7 p.m.

Wild Women of the West

Tom “Dr. Colorado” Noel and Jacqui Ainlay-Conley

Wednesday, September 12, 7 p.m., Broomfield Auditorium, Suggested Donation $10

The Untold Story of Peruvian Japanese during World War II

Gil Asakawa, Journalist and Author of “Being Japanese American” (2014, Stone Bridge Press) and City and County of Broomfield Manager Charles Ozaki

Wednesday, October 10, 7 p.m.