

Broomfield Council on the Arts & Humanities Presents

2018 Summer Sundays Series

Join us for these free family-friendly events at the historic Brunner Farmhouse located at 640 Main St. in Broomfield.

4-6 p.m.: Carnival games and prizes, arts and crafts, storytelling and more
6-8 p.m.: Concert on the back porch performed by a popular Colorado band

Enjoy games, music, and refreshments at the little yellow house on the hill.
Bring your family, friends, and some lawn chairs!

June 10—Journey Girls

Denver's top Journey tribute band celebrates songs that have become arena rock staples and echo on radio stations around the world. Go back in time with Journey Girls and be witness to artful, intense, melodic rock music played with passionate musicianship.

July 8—Still We Rise

Classically trained musicians turned acoustic singer-songwriters, Anastasia Rose and Sara Giita bring joy and depth to their inspiring original songs and favorites by The Beatles, Bob Marley, Sara Bareilles, and more. With soaring harmonies and playful acoustic arrangements, Still We Rise gives voice to the rollercoaster of life.

August 12—Metropolitan Jazz Orchestra

Metropolitan Jazz Orchestra (MJO) is known as "the premier jazz orchestra of the Rocky Mountain area." Featuring many of Denver's finest jazz musicians, MJO performances include toe-tapping hits of the 40's and 50's, as well as big band, jazz, Latin, rock, and modern pop.

Broomfield Council on the Arts & Humanities

PH: 303-460-6800

Email: BCAH@ArtsinBroomfield.org

Website: www.ArtsinBroomfield.org

