Please include additional notes and comments below:

Only one adult was observed when I arrived on site. A1 was perched in the nest tree. At 9:21 Y1 was seen flying towards the nest tree from the northeast. Y1 landed in the group of trees south of the nest tree, then flew to perch in the nest briefly, then flew off north and landed on a low branch of the northern cottonwood near 470.

Y1 remained on that perch until 9:45 when I ended observation.
