

CLASS.....

Exploring Possibilities

Monday, August 14, 2017 @ 1-4 p.m.

100 Spader Way, Broomfield, CO 80020

This class is designed for the unemployed and underemployed; however, many who feel comfortably employed have observed its value. We all know how fragile continued employment can be in today's world.

My goal is not to provide you with any specific answers since they will be unique to you and must be discovered from within. We will discuss numerous ideas and ask questions that are sometimes provocative to help you on your personal journey.

This class explores:

- Adapting to the Changing World
- Where do you really want to be?
- How might you intend to get there?
- What are some tools you might use?
- What are your next steps?

REMEMBER, being busy is not the same as making progress!

The class provides numerous opportunities to probe different ideas. Confidentiality is encouraged to remove the barriers to productive dialogue.

Call 303.464.5894 or see

Workforce Center staff to sign-up!

This free workshop is facilitated By Hal Lunka, principal of AVR Associates, Ltd., a consulting firm that integrates the best of Project Management, Six Sigma, Portfolio Management, and Management of Change. He is also a past Chairman and President of the Project Management Institute Mile Hi Chapter. Hal has also taught at the Keller Graduate School of Management and is a member of the Cherry Creek Toastmasters Club.

Auxiliary aides and services are available upon request, given within reasonable notice, to individuals with disabilities

Broomfield
Workforce Center

www.avrassociates.com